LEARNING TARGETS LT10 Critique & Refinement

A 60-second produced video responding to the event card your team received this phase.

CRITERION	ADVANCED (5)	PROFICIENT (3)
Directly Addresses the Crisis	Confronts the crisis head-on, naming it and responding without evasion.	Addresses the crisis but partially or indirectly.
Authenticity of Tone	Tone reads as genuine and human, earning audience trust.	Tone is acceptable but feels somewhat scripted or generic.
Clear Path Forward	Offers a specific, believable path forward that reassures the audience.	Suggests a path forward but vaguely or incompletely.
Brand Voice Consistency	Voice stays fully consistent with the established brand across the whole piece.	Voice is mostly consistent with occasional lapses.
Production Quality	Professional-level production: clean audio, strong visuals, polished edit.	Acceptable production with noticeable rough spots.

LEARNING TARGETS LT5 Design Layouts · LT10 Critique & Refinement

A minimum of 3 produced BuzzNet posts redirecting the brand's narrative after the crisis. At least one post must feature original photography — no stock imagery.

CRITERION	ADVANCED (5)	PROFICIENT (3)
Strategic Narrative Shift	Clearly and convincingly repositions the brand's story for a new direction.	Attempts a narrative shift but it is partial or unconvincing.
Original Photography	Uses original, well-composed, well-lit photography that meets standard.	Original photography is present but with technical or compositional weaknesses.
Platform Appropriateness	Content is precisely formatted and toned for its target platform.	Content generally fits the platform but misses some conventions.
Visual & Copy Quality	Visuals and copy are polished, on-brand, and mutually reinforcing.	Visuals and copy are adequate but uneven in quality.
Audience Re-engagement	Gives the audience a compelling reason to re-engage with the brand.	Makes some effort to re-engage but the hook is weak.
Brand Voice	Written consistently in a convincing, on-brand voice throughout.	Mostly on-brand voice with some slips into generic tone.

LEARNING TARGETS LT8 Market Research

A structured analysis of your assigned competitor's Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats.

CRITERION	ADVANCED (5)	PROFICIENT (3)
Strengths — Depth & Specificity	Identifies genuine strengths with specific, well-supported detail.	Names strengths but generally or without much support.
Weaknesses — Honesty & Insight	Honestly identifies real weaknesses with insight into their causes.	Names weaknesses but softens them or lacks insight.
Opportunities — Strategic Value	Surfaces realistic, high-value opportunities tied to the brand's position.	Lists opportunities but of limited relevance or value.
Threats — Credibility	Identifies credible, specific threats the brand actually faces.	Names threats but generic or loosely supported.
Strategic Conclusion	Synthesizes the analysis into a clear, actionable strategic conclusion.	Reaches a conclusion but it is general or weakly tied to the analysis.

Repeating Rubrics

Used every phase

LEARNING TARGETS Learning targets follow the active phase — these deliverables are scored against whichever LTs that phase is running.

Weekly Journal Entry

1 entry per week

LEARNING TARGETS Scored against the active phase's learning targets

A weekly reflection prompt tied to that week's events, found in your Brand Dashboard. (Same rubric used for every weekly journal in all phases.)

CRITERION	ADVANCED (5)	PROFICIENT (3)
Responds to the Weekly Prompt	Fully and directly answers the week's prompt with clear focus.	Addresses the prompt but partially or with some drift.
Brand Decision Analysis	Analyzes the week's brand decisions with clear cause-and-effect reasoning and specific examples.	Describes decisions but analysis stays surface-level.
Depth of Reflection	Reflection is thoughtful and honest, showing genuine insight into what was learned.	Some reflection is present but stays general.
Writing Quality	Clear, well-organized, and virtually error-free writing with a professional tone.	Generally clear with some errors or organizational lapses.
